

What's Goin' On April 2025

Meetings and Programs

April 2 Dinner – Edina Country Club

Thanks to Ross Davis our speaker will be Andy Brehm, General Counsel for Burwell Enterprises. His topic will be The Friendship Recession. Many of us have fewer meaningful relationships than ever before. Now is a good time to assess our friendships and whether we're doing enough to keep them going.

Andy Brehm has been a conservative commentator around the Twin Cities for nearly 20 years, regularly contributing to the Star Tribune's opinion section and frequently appearing on KSTP's "At Issue" and TPT's "Almanac." He's a corporate lawyer and previously served as U.S. Sen. Norm Coleman's press secretary.

April 16 Lunch – Edina Country Club

John Fossum has invited Chris Holden, Principal of Normandale French Immersion School, to be our speaker. The school is located just south of Edina Country Club.

May 7 Dinner – Edina Country Club

We will have a meeting. Stay tuned for details.

Program Help Available

If you need help lining up a program, contact Howard Goltz or Dan Atkins for leads and suggestions. Members are encouraged to arrange programs early, and provide information to the newsletter editor, Rich Makela, so we can publicize the program in the newsletter, helping assure good attendance at meetings. If you contact Howard or Dan, or any other member, for help, make sure it is clear who is to contact the speaker, and that there is only one primary contact person.

Social Events

We have a social event scheduled for April 24 at the Sidekick Theatre in Bloomington. It's a comedy play called "Perfect Wedding". There will be a lunch there at 11:30 followed by the play at 1pm. Cost for lunch/play is $51. You should have received an email from Dick Foley with more details.
